

Urge the U.S. to Do Its Share

Stop the Global AIDS Epidemic

The global AIDS epidemic threatens to destroy whole societies. Only a major, well-funded effort supported by the United States and other well-off countries will prevent an unprecedented disaster. At the urging of U.N. Secretary-General Kofi Annan, a new Global Fund To Fight AIDS, TB, and Malaria has been established, but the Bush Administration hasn't committed enough support for this fund or other global efforts against AIDS. Urge the U.S. government to adequately fund this effort:
